CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY INFORMATION REPORT CD NO. DATE DISTR. 13 Feb. 1951 DATE DISTR. 13 Feb. 1951 NO. OF PAGES 1 THO OF SUPPLEMENT TO SUPPLEMENT TO SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. THE OF SUPPLEMENT TO SUPPLEMENT	:	CLASSIFICATION SHORET/CUNTRUL =	U. S. OFFICIALS ONLY	50X1-HU
DUNTRY Albania DATE DISTR. 13 Feb. 1951 NO. OF PAGES 1 NO. OF ENCLS. UNITED SUPPLEMENT TO SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. THE OF FO. THE OF FO. THE OF SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORM THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORM THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORM THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORM 1. On 3 February 1950 General Mehmet Shehm arrived in Puka where he visited certain police units stationed there; shortly thereafter he departed for Ruses. This is unevaluated by the reaction of the northern frontier of Albania bordering on Yugoslavia. He was accompanied by two truckloads of soldiers, and riding with him in his car were two persons in civilians clothes, one of whom was believed to be Russian. 2. Unidentified aircraft continue to make night and day flights over northern Albania, regardless of adverse weather. 3. Police operations in northern Albania grow daily; 800 men of the Special Arm arrived in Puka and Thulle early in February 1950, coming from Shkoder and Rukes. Many arrests were made and the selare of arms from civilians continues, 50 weapons having been confiscated by the authorities during the post two months. In the same general area, there is interested continues, 50 weapons having been confiscated by the authorities during the post two months. In the same general area, there is interested continues, 50 weapons having been confiscated by the authorities during the post two months. In the same general area, there is interested activity on the part of Government agents charged with the responsibility for capturing any foreign agents operating in the general area. 4. after a brief interruption Yugoslav agents have results sumed their trips into Albanian territory.		CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGEN	ICY REPORT
IBJECT Strengthening of Security Controls in No. Of PAGES 1 Northern Albania ACE QUIRED NE OF NO. OF ENCLS. QUIRED SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORM THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORM		information rep	ORT CD NO.
No. Of ENCLS. QUIRED NO. OF ENCLS. CLESTED BELOW: SUPPLEMENT TO SOX1-HUM REPORT NO. THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORM 1. On 3 February 1950 General Mehmet Shehn arrived in Puka where he visited certain police units stationed there; shortly thereafter he departed for Kukes. The processor of the ross of recommendation of the Shehn, who had just come from Shkoder, was on a general inspection tour of the northern frontier of Albania bordering on Yugoalavia. He was accompanied by two truckloads of soldiers, and riding with him in his car were two persons in civilian clothes, one of whom was believed to be Russian. 2. Unidentified aircraft continue to make night and day flights over northern Albania, regardless of adverse weather. 3. Police operations in northern Albania grow daily; 800 mm of the Special Arm arrived in Puka and Iballe early in February 1950, coming from Shkoder and Kukes. Pany arrests were made and the seizure of arms from civilians continues, 55 weapons having been confiscated by the authoristics during the past too months. In the same general area, there is increased activity on the part of Government agents charged with the responsibility for capturing any foreign agents operating in the general area. Sumed their trips into Albanian territory.	UNTRY	Albania	DATE DISTR. 13 Fe	b. 1951
THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORM 1. On 3 February 1950 General Mehmet Shem arrived in Puka where he visited certain police units stationed there; shortly thereafter he departed for Kukes. 1. This is unevaluated the statement of the second of the second of the statement of sta	JBJECT		NO. OF PAGES 1
THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORM 1. On 3 February 1950 General Mehmet Shehn arrived in Puka where he visited certain police units stationed there; shortly thereafter he departed for Kukes. 1. On 3 February 1950 General Mehmet Shehn arrived in Puka where he visited certain police units stationed there; shortly thereafter he departed for Kukes. 1. On 3 February 1950 General Mehmet Shehn arrived in Puka where he visited certain police units stationed there; shortly thereafter he departed for Kukes. 1. On 3 February 1950 General Mehmet Shehn arrived in Puka where he visited certain police units stationed there; shortly thereafter he departed for Kukes. 1. On 3 February 1950 General Mehmet Shehn arrived in Puka where he visited certain police units stationed there; shortly thereafter he departed for Shehn, who had just come from Shkoder, was on a general inspection tour of the northern frontier of Albania bordering on Yugoslavia. He was accompanied by two truckloads of soldiers, and riding with him in his car were two persons in civilian clothes, one of whom was believed to be Russian. 2. Unidentified aircraft continue to make night and day flights over northern Albania, regardless of adverse weather. 3. Police operations in northern Albania grow daily; 800 men of the Special Arm arrived in Puka and Iballe early in February 1950, coming from Shkoder and Kukes. Many arrests were made and the seisure of arms from civilians continues, 55 weapons having been confiscated by the authorities during the peat two months. In the same general area, there is increased activity on the part of Government agents charged with the responsibility for capturing any foreign agents operating in the general area. 4. Sumed their trips into Albanian territory.			NO. OF ENCLS.
1. On 3 February 1950 General Mehmet Shehn arrived in Puka where he visited certain police units stationed there; shortly thereafter he departed for Kukes. Shehn, who had just come from Shkoder, was on a general inspection tour of the northern frontier of Albania bordering on Yugoslavia. He was accompanied by two truckloads of soldiers, and riding with him in his car were two persons in civilian clothes, one of whom was believed to be Russian. 2. Unidentified aircraft continue to make night and day flights over northern Albania, regardless of adverse weather. 3. Police operations in northern Albania grow daily; 800 men of the Special Arm arrived in Puka and Iballe early in February 1950, coming from Shkoder and Kukes. Many arrests were made and the seizure of arms from civilians continues, 55 weapons having been confiscated by the authorities during the past two months. In the same general area, there is increased activity on the part of Government agents charged with the responsibility for capturing any foreign agents operating in the general area. 4. after a brief interruption Yugoslav agents have years sumed their trips into Albanian territory.	TE OF		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	50X1-HUM
Shem, who had just come from Shkoder, was on a general inspection tour of the northern frontier of Albania bordering on Yugoslavia. He was accompanied by two truckloads of soldiers, and riding with him in his car were two persons in civilian clothes, one of whom was believed to be Russian. 2. Unidentified aircraft continue to make night and day flights over northern Albania, regardless of adverse weather. 3. Police operations in northern Albania grow daily; 800 men of the Special Arm arrived in Puka and Iballe early in February 1950, coming from Shkoder and Kukes. Many arrests were made and the seizure of arms from civilians continues, 55 weapons having been confiscated by the authorities during the past two months. In the same general area, there is increased activity on the part of Government agents charged with the responsibility for capturing any foreign agents operating in the general area. 4. after a brief interruption Yugoslav agents have resumed their trips into Albanian territory.	of the onited (e. c. c. 97 arg (of the cuateria eletted by Lau.	CONTAINS INFORMATION APPLICATING VIB MATIONAL DEPUNSE PROTECTING WITHIN THE MARKING OF THE ESPICIALISE ACT OF MARKET TO ARE DEVILLATION OF THE PROTECTION IN THE PROTECTION OF THE POST IS PROPERLY TO ARE MAINTENED. TO THE POST IS PROPERLY OF THE POST IS PROPHISTIED.	is unevaluated inform
Albania, regardless of adverse weather. 3. Police operations in northern Albania grow daily; 800 men of the Special Arm arrived in Puka and Iballe early in February 1950, coming from Shkoder and Kukes. Many arrests were made and the seizure of arms from civilians continues, 55 weapons having been confiscated by the authorities during the past two months. In the same general area, there isincreased activity on the part of Government agents charged with the responsibility for capturing any foreign agents operating in the general area. 4 after a brief interruption Yugoslav agents have resumed their trips into Albanian territory.	1.	certain police units stationed there; shor Kukes.	Shehu, who had just of tour of the northern frontic	come erof 50X1-H
Arm arrived in Puka and Iballe early in February 1950, coming from shadder and Kukes. Many arrests were made and the seizure of arms from civilians continues, 55 weapons having been confiscated by the authorities during the past two months. In the same general area, there is increased activity on the part of Government agents charged with the responsibility for capturing any foreign agents operating in the general area. 4 after a brief interruption Yugoslav agents have resumed their trips into Albanian territory.		certain police units stationed there; shorkukes. from Shkoder, was on a general inspection. Albania bordering on Yugoslavia. He was a soldiers, and riding with him in his car we clothes, one of whom was believed to be Ru	Shehu, who had just of tour of the northern frontice companied by two truckloads ere two persons in civilian ssian.	come er of 50X1-HI s of
after a brief interruption Yugoslav agents have resembled their trips into Albanian territory.	2.	certain police units stationed there; shorkukes. from Shkoder, was on a general inspection. Albania bordering on Yugoslavia. He was a soldiers, and riding with him in his car we clothes, one of whom was believed to be RuUnidentified aircraft continue to make night Albania, regardless of adverse weather.	Shehu, who had just of tour of the northern frontic companied by two truckloads ere two persons in civilian ssian. ht and day flights over nor	tore come er of 50X1-H s of thern 50X1-H
50X1-HUN	2.	certain police units stationed there; shorkukes. from Shkoder, was on a general inspection. Albania bordering on Yugoslavia. He was a soldiers, and riding with him in his car we clothes, one of whom was believed to be Ru Unidentified aircraft continue to make nig Albania, regardless of adverse weather. Police operations in northern Albania grow Arm arrived in Puka and Iballe early in Fe and Kukes. Many arrests were made and the continues, 55 weapons having been confiscated past two months. In the same general area activity on the part of Government agents	Shehu, who had just tour of the northern frontic companied by two truckloads ere two persons in civilian ssian. ht and day flights over nor daily; 800 men of the Spec bruary 1950, coming from Shesizure of arms from civil ted by the authorities durit, there isincreacharged with the responsibil	thern 50X1-H ial koder ians ng the
	2. 3.	certain police units stationed there; shork Kukes. from Shkoder, was on a general inspection. Albania bordering on Yugoslavia. He was a soldiers, and riding with him in his car we clothes, one of whom was believed to be Ru Unidentified aircraft continue to make night Albania, regardless of adverse weather. Police operations in northern Albania grow Arm arrived in Puka and Iballe early in Fe and Kukes. Many arrests were made and the continues, 55 weapons having been confiscated past two months. In the same general area activity on the part of Government agents for capturing any foreign agents operating after a brief interru	Shehu, who had just of tour of the northern frontic companied by two truckloads ere two persons in civilian ssian. In that and day flights over nor daily; 800 men of the Spectoruary 1950, coming from She seizure of arms from civil ted by the authorities during there is increased with the responsibility in the general area.	thern 50X1-H ial koder ing the ased 50X1-H
	2. 3.	certain police units stationed there; shork Kukes. from Shkoder, was on a general inspection. Albania bordering on Yugoslavia. He was a soldiers, and riding with him in his car we clothes, one of whom was believed to be Ru Unidentified aircraft continue to make night Albania, regardless of adverse weather. Police operations in northern Albania grow Arm arrived in Puka and Iballe early in Fe and Kukes. Many arrests were made and the continues, 55 weapons having been confiscated past two months. In the same general area activity on the part of Government agents for capturing any foreign agents operating after a brief interru	Shehu, who had just of tour of the northern frontic companied by two truckloads ere two persons in civilian ssian. In that and day flights over nor daily; 800 men of the Spectoruary 1950, coming from She seizure of arms from civil ted by the authorities during there is increased with the responsibility in the general area.	thern 50X1-H ial koder ians ng the ased 50X1-H 1ity 50X1-H
	2. 3.	certain police units stationed there; shork Kukes. from Shkoder, was on a general inspection. Albania bordering on Yugoslavia. He was a soldiers, and riding with him in his car we clothes, one of whom was believed to be Ru Unidentified aircraft continue to make night Albania, regardless of adverse weather. Police operations in northern Albania grow Arm arrived in Puka and Iballe early in Fe and Kukes. Many arrests were made and the continues, 55 weapons having been confiscated past two months. In the same general area activity on the part of Government agents for capturing any foreign agents operating after a brief interru	Shehu, who had just of tour of the northern frontic companied by two truckloads ere two persons in civilian ssian. In that and day flights over nor daily; 800 men of the Spectoruary 1950, coming from She seizure of arms from civil ted by the authorities during there is increased with the responsibility in the general area.	thern 50X1-H ial koder ians ng the ased 50X1-H
CLASSIFICATION SECRET/CONTROL = U. S. OFFICIALS ONLY	2. 3.	certain police units stationed there; shorkukes. from Shkoder, was on a general inspection. Albania bordering on Yugoslavia. He was a soldiers, and riding with him in his car we clothes, one of whom was believed to be Ru Unidentified aircraft continue to make nig Albania, regardless of adverse weather. Police operations in northern Albania grow Arm arrived in Puka and Iballe early in Fe and Kukes. Many arrests were made and the continues, 55 weapons having been confiscant past two months. In the same general area activity on the part of Government agents for capturing any foreign agents operating after a brief interrusumed their trips into Albanian territory.	Shehu, who had just tour of the northern frontic companied by two truckloads ere two persons in civilian ssian. In the and day flights over nor daily; 800 men of the Spec bruary 1950, coming from Shesizure of arms from civil ted by the authorities durit, there is	thern 50X1-Hi sof ial koder ians ng the ased 50X1-Hi

CONFIDENTIAL